Should everyone have the same opportunity to the “good life?”
““The Undoing Racism workshop is completely different than anything I have been involved in the past eight years; it is powerful, it is enlightening, and it is a whole new approach to “leveling the playing field.””
– Bill David, Jacksonville Diversity Network Board of Directors, Jacksonville, FL

Have you been working to remove the inequities in your organization?
“The Institute continues to inspire and keep the moral imperative before us, that working to achieve racial equity is critical to improving the lives of all children and families impacted by our nation’s welfare system... The learnings from these trainings have had a tremendous impact on how all of our organizations now work with people from all backgrounds and the positive outcomes we’re achieving.”
– Ralph Bayard, Senior Director, Casey Family Programs

It's time to Walk the Talk
“I took the training three times and have been extremely impressed with their analysis of racism and their attitude toward working with people across the board to undo this evil that has organized our society for so long... It inspires people in the most positive way to think about their own position in society and to work from that position to change the situation in whatever arena they can influence.”
– Monica McGoldrick, MSW
